VITALII STEPANENKO

Junior Frontend Developer

SUMMARY

An inspired Front-end developer with a strong analytical mindset and well-developed organizational skills. I have experience in successfully using the Agile/Scrum methodology Delivered projects on time, on budget and user focused friendly. I focus my development on HTML5, CSS3, JS, React and English. Always finished what I started: from reading the documentation to writing the code. The same goes for work tasks and responsibilities. I respect other people's opinions, I make compromises, but I know how to defend my own vision. I love writing code and everything related to it. I approach work with maximum efficiency. I want to work in a friendly team where everyone respects each other.
